GENERAL ORDER No. 1
TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN.

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of

DRY GOODS

ever offered in Janesville, is now open to

PUBLIC INSPECTION
at the
Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 33 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public.

Piles of Goods.

But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth cannot pretend to

COMPETE WITH US!

In proof of which we offer the following:

200 ps full yd wide New York E Sheetings,	30c per yd

100 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets,	31¼c"

200 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.

Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still

HAVE MANY PACKAGES

of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Spragues and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.
We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior

HOOP SKIRTS

at old prices. Our stock of

Hosiery, Gloves & Embroideries

will be found the largest and most comprehensive in the state. Ladies will here find a full line of hand made Tatting, all widths, Collerette a La Eugene, Bordure Imperatrice, Linen Collars, plain and with ruffled, embroidered, colored and mourning trimming.

IN CLOAKINGS AND SACKINGS

We shall exhibit 100 pieces Middlesex and Washington all wool, most desirable shades, plain and mixed.

In Our Millinery Department will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnetts and Flats of the fashionable Eugene, Alexandrina and Alboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of

SHAKER HOODS,

GENT'S GARMENTS.

We have also a well selected line of Harris, Woodstock and other well known brands of

Fancy Cassimeres,

which if desired, we shall

In conclusion, we cordially invite the public, for its own satisfaction, to examine every stock in the city before looking at ours. But we would also caution every purchaser not to invest one dime in Dry Goods before calling at the

DAILY GAZETTE.

GENERAL HOOKER.—We are permitted to publish the following extract of a letter from a personal friend of this officer. We publish it believing it may correct in some degree, public impressions that are as erroneous as they are unjust:

"You may feel some interest in knowing that I spent last Sunday in Baltimore with General Hooker. He rejoices as earnestly as any other person in the success of Gen. Meade, but feels most deeply the injustice done himself. It is some evidence, I think, of Hooker's fitness to command, that Meade took the army just as he left it, with the exception of reinforcements, and found it so ready for action and victory! You may ask, "Why did not Hooker lead it to action and victory?" The reason is simply this—that reinforcements were withheld from him that were given to Meade on the very day that he assumed command. Ever since the invasion began Hooker had been pleading for those reinforcements. He had said to General Halleck and the war department: "I am able with the force I have to whip Lee, but not to capture his army. The country will not be satisfied if Lee is permitted to get back, and he may as easily be captured as whipped. Give me Couch and the garrison (10,000 men) at Harper's Ferry." Halleck refused. Having command at Harper's Ferry, Hooker then took the responsibility and ordered its evacuation. Halleck countermanded the order. Hooker then telegraphed: "I now demand reinforcements, or I earnestly beg to be relieved of my command." He was relieved and the very messenger who brought Halleck's order to Meade, brought the order giving him the forces which Hooker had waited and begged for in vain. Such is the simple statement of facts. I said to the General, "It is too bad that you should have that splendid prize so near your hand and not be allowed to pluck it." He replied with a quivering lip, "It is hard fortune."

I give you my word that the stories about his drunkenness are utterly false. So far from being drunk at Chancellorsville, the fact is that when he was made insensible by a cannon shot against a column upon which he was leaning, and spirits were wanted for his use by the surgeon, not a drop could be found at his quarters, and it was long before it could be obtained."

REPORTER'S INCIDENT AT GETTYSBURG.—Whilst one of our reporters was on a tour of inspection to the wounded, at the late battle at Gettysburg, he had his attention drawn to a singularly beautiful young man, upon whom death had already settled his mark. While admiring his tender age and fragile build, the young sufferer opened his soft hazel eyes, and, looking up, said:

"Won't you please raise my head and rub my hands? they cramp so."

Our reporter complied, and asked him his name. He stated that it was James Warner, of Loudon county, Virginia.

It was then that he knew the young sufferer to be in the rebel service. Upon questioning him, he stated that he never entered the rebel service willingly; that both of his parents were Union people.

"Won't you tell my mother, when you get an opportunity, that I am happy, and expect to meet her in heaven. Will you give me a drink? and then I shall die easy."

Our reporter of course acquiesced, and gave the little rebel sufferer all the attention and consolation he could bestow. As he left, big-framed and big hearted soldiers of the Union were standing by their late enemy, showering over him their tears, and blessing him with that attention that only the brave know how to bestow.—Philadelphia Inquirer, 8th.

NEW SIDE WHEEL IRON-CLADS.—The navy department has dedcided to build another new batch of iron-clad vessels of war, differing in several important respects from all those hitherto constructed in this country. Instead of being propelled by a screw they will have paddle wheels, and be entirely iron, with only the necessary wooden backing. The following parties have contracted to build one each of the new vessels:

Thomas Rowlan, of Greenpoint, one contractor in Philadelphia, and one in Boston. These ships will be finished about the same time as the fifteen light draught vessels.—N. Y. World, 20th.

FLORENCE
SEWING MACHINE.
OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.
Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

GENERAL ORDER No. 1

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN!

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of

DRY GOODS

ever offered in Janesville, is now open to

at the

Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar, of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 33 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public.

Piles of Goods.

But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth cannot pretend to

in proof of which we offer the following:

200 ps full yd wide New York E Sheetings,	30c per yd.

which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.
Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still

of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached. Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.
We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior

DAILY GAZETTE.

GENERAL HOOKER.—We are permitted to publish the following extract of a letter from a personal friend of this officer. We publish it believing it may correct in some degree, public impressions that are as erroneous as they are unjust:

"You may feel some interest in knowing that I spent last Sunday in Baltimore with General Hooker. He rejoices as earnestly as any other person in the success of Gen. Meade, but feels most deeply the injustice done himself. It is some evidence, I think, of Hooker's fitness to command, that Meade took the army just as he left it, with the exception of reinforcements, and found it so ready for action and victory! You may ask, 'Why did not Hooker lead it to action and victory?' The reason is simply this—that reinforcements were withheld from him that were given to Meade on the very day that he assumed command. Ever since the invasion began Hooker had been pleading for those reinforcements. He had said to General Halleck and the war department: "I am able with the force I have to whip Lee, but not to capture his army. The country will not be satisfied if Lee is permitted to get back, and he may as easily be captured as whipped. Give me Couch and the garrison (10,000 men) at Harper's Ferry." Halleck refused. Having command at Harper's Ferry, Hooker then took the responsibility and ordered its evacuation. Halleck countermanded the order. Hooker then telegraphed: "I now demand reinforcements, or I earnestly beg to be relieved of my command." He was relieved and the very messenger who brought Halleck's order to Meade, brought the order giving him the forces which Hooker had waited and begged for in vain. Such is the simple statement of facts. I said to the General, "It is too bad that you should have that splendid prize so near your hand and not be allowed to pluck it." He replied with a quivering lip, "It is hard fortune."

I give you my word that the stories about his drunkenness are utterly false. So far from being drunk at Chancellorsville, the fact is that when he was made insensible by a cannon shot against a column upon which he was leaning, and spirits were wanted for his use by the surgeon, not a drop could be found at his quarters, and it was long before it could be obtained."

REPORTER'S INCIDENT AT GETTYSBURG.—Whilst one of our reporters was on a tour of inspection to the wounded, at the late battle at Gettysburg, he had his attention drawn to a singularly beautiful young man, upon whom death had already settled his mark. While admiring his tender age and fragile build, the young sufferer opened his soft hazel eyes, and, looking up, said:

"Won't you please raise my head and rub my hands? they cramp so."

Our reporter complied, and asked him his name. He stated that it was James Warner, of Loudon county, Virginia.

It was then that he knew the young sufferer to be in the rebel service. Upon questioning him, he stated that he never entered the rebel service willingly; that both of his parents were Union people.

"Won't you tell my mother, when you get an opportunity, that I am happy, and expect to meet her in heaven. Will you give me a drink? and then I shall die easy."

Our reporter of course acquiesced, and gave the little rebel sufferer all the attention and consolation he could bestow. As he left, big-framed and big-hearted soldiers of the Union were standing by their late enemy, showering over him their tears, and blessing him with that attention that only the brave know how to bestow.—Philadelphia Inquirer, 8th.

NEW SIDE WHEEL IRON-CLADS.—The navy department has dedcided to build another new batch of iron-clad vessels of war, differing in several important respects from all those hitherto constructed in this country. Instead of being propelled by a screw they will have paddle wheels, and be entirely iron, with only the necessary wooden backing. The following parties have contracted to build one each of the new vessels:

Thomas Rowlan, of Greenpoint, one contractor in Philadelphia, and one in Boston. These ships will be finished about the same time as the fifteen light draught vessels.—N. Y. World, 20th.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.
Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Republican Union State Convention.

A Republican Union State Convention will be held at the Capitol in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M, on WEDNESDAY, THE 17th DAY of AUGUST NEXT, to nominate candidates for state officers to be chosen at the general election in November, and to take such other action as the public welfare shall seem to demand.

The chief public questions now before the country are those relating to the present war, and the proper method of dealing with the rebellion. There is no reason why those who concur substantially in opinion on these subjects should not now act together politically whatever may have been their antecedents.—We therefore cordially invite all electors to unite in the election of delegates to the state convention aforesaid who approve of the following propositions:

That the Union be preserved in its integrity;

That the constitution and laws of the United States be enforced throughout the whole national domain;

That the rebellion be suppressed, not by compromises with or concessions to traitors, but by the sword, whose agency they have themselves invoked:

That the national administration should be heartily and generously supported, in its efforts to put down the rebellion.

Each senate and assembly district will be entitled to two delegates in said state convention.

The central committee recommend to the district committees that the conventions for the election of delegates be held as early as Saturday, the 8th day of August.

The National Loan.

The secretary of the treasury has ordered that the "five-twenty bonds" shall be still offered for sale. It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that the Rock county bank is an agent for their disposal in this vicinity. The opportunity for procuring these bonds may cease at any time, therefore those who wish to make the investment should do so at once. The advantages are very great—any amount, from $50 upwards can be obtained—there can be no state tax upon them, and no national tax, unless the income exceeds $600—the interest is payable in gold, and also the principal when due—unlike a loan upon mortgage their is no trouble about titles, nor any difficulty of selling them, if the owner wishes. In every way they are a most convenient and profitable investment, and at the same time their purchase aids the government in suppressing the rebellion. It is thus that interest and patriotism are combined. There are thousands of dollars in this country lying idle, which, if converted into five-twenty bonds, would yield a safe and remunerative revenue to their possessors. Let all who can invest this way, try it.

Resistance to the Draft.

The Janesville Monitor threatens that it will be dangerous to characterize the recent anti-draft mobs as democratic riots, because mobs will thereby be stimulated by the hope of support from that quarter. If there was no disloyalty in that party we do not see how it could have that effect. It seems to us that the Monitor is libeling its own party, if it is true, as it says, that there is no disposition in it to resist the draft. No misrepresentations can induce a truly loyal man or party to oppose the government in its efforts to obtain soldiers to defend the integrity of the Union. It is the foulest slander that could be cast upon the name of any man, or party, to say that if encouraged, if made to believe that he would be protected, he would take up arms against his own government, rather than give it that military aid which every obligation both moral and legal, imposes upon him as a good citizen. It seems to us that the Monitor is treading upon the dangerous ground of inducing such a state of things, when it announces that there are men in its own party who would be emboldened to do this if encouraged a little. Perhaps it right, however, and that the number is large enough to make it a "duty" to give its "friends" a solemn word of caution, that the democratic party will not back them up in such a course. It knows the material of which that party is composed better than we do, and it can therefore best justify itself in making such an announcement.

If the peril is so great from this cause that "it is impossible for us (the editors of the Monitor) to magnify the danger attending this effort," that is, the effort which it says the republican press is making to cause the belief that the democratic party stands ready to back a resistance of the draft, then its warning should be heeded. But there must be a great number of its political friends who are willing to resist, or the terms of its warning are rather strong. It is almost sufficient to prove what it so vehemently denies.

The Monitor is mistaken when it says that the republican press is endeavoring to cause the belief that the "democratic" party is backing men up in resisting the draft. The charge is that the copperheads are doing so. It is not the old Jacksonian democratic party which is engaged in this traitorous work, but a new party, led by Vallandigham and Fernando Wood, who [illegible] of democracy, under which they are endeavoring to ruin their country. True democrats, such as Dickinson, Butler, Dix, Grant, Andrew Johnson, Rosecrans, McClernand, Logan, Tod, Brough, Brady, and hosts of others, are in favor of the draft, and of all other measures necessary for the suppression of the rebellion. They do not belong to the "peace party," while war is being waged against the old flag. There is a difference between a democrat and a copperhead, and the distinction is growing wider every day.

If the Monitor, and those who claim to be democratic leaders, are sincere in their avowed desire that there should be no resistance to the draft, they can now accomplish a good work in undoing the prejudice against the conscription law which they have fostered in the minds of the people. They alone have the ear of those who are at all disposed to resist. Let them go among them and tell them that this is war for the nation; that it is the duty of all men in time of war to sustain their country; that a conscription is the fairest method of obtaining men for the national defence; that the present law is as just as any law ever adopted for this purpose, and must be sustained, or the republic will be lost; and let them encourage a truly American and patriotic sentiment among all classes, instead of occupying the time and the attention of the people in endeavoring to mislead and stir up sedition. In this way they will be able to demonstrate that there is no disloyalty in the democratic party, and to make obsolete the name of copperhead. By doing this they can save the country from anarchy, and the Union from dissolution. Let them close their mouths against all talk about party issues and unite for the Union and its salvation and they will be met more than half way by the republicans. Let the democratic leaders make their party a war party by supporting the war against rebellion, just as the noble democrats whom we have named are doing, and if they desire it, that party shall have the whole credit. Would not this be a grand mission for them? Truly, nothing could be more glorious, and the opportunity is now open. A bleeding country invites and entreats them to enter upon this upward path to fame and power.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

The First and Eleventh Corps at the Battle of Gettysburg.

EXPRESS OFFICE HOSPITAL,
GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 17.

The rebel army is again in Virginia. The soil of Pennsylvania and Maryland did not suit their taste, as they have learned by their rashness in making so fool-hardy a move as the one of June and July. They have learned by experience that rebels are not men of the north. One more invasion like this last one would uterly ruin the army of Northern Virginia. They have lost since the 30th of June, 45,000 men by casualties of war, desertion, &c., and of this number I think I can safely say 15,000 are wounded and in our hands.

The morning of the first was sultry and warm, we had orders to march at day-break, but for some cause we did not move until sunrise. The first corps moved from near Green Mount on the road to Gettysburg, our first division in the lead. When within one mile of the town firing began on our left and front. The rebels were driving in Buford's cavalry which had moved forward on the Chambersburg road. Leaving the road passing through a wheat field and through a piece of timber, some 80 rods ahead were our cavalry and flying artillery, contesting the advance of the rebels, who were pushing forward to gain a high eminence in our front, commanding the road by which we were approaching. At this point an order came along the line for non-combatants to the rear. The contrabands understood it and made themselves scarce.

About that time the division moved on and entered a field a quarter of a mile to the left of Gettysburg seminary, the 1st brigade being in the advance, in the following order: 2d Wisconsin, 7th Wisconsin, 19th Indiana, 24th Michigan and 6th Wisconsin. The rear was brought up by Major Wright of the 24th Michigan with a guard of 100 men. At this point we were ordered to double-quick in line loading our guns and fixing bayonets as we went. As we came to the brow of the hill, some messengers came whistling along. Directly in our front and about 40 rods away was a regiment of rebel skirmishers. They were advancing so rapidly that it was necessary to make a charge to spoil the advantageous position they had gained. With a yell, the brigade went down through a piece of timber as if a nest of hornets had got loose. At this point I fell wounded, being struck below the knee by a Minnie ball, which had the tendency of stopping my fun for a brief space of time, as my limb has since been amputated. With the help of two rifles I got off the field to the seminary, where my wound was dressed, shortly after being taken to town. Since then I have not seen the brigade nor heard of the exact loss, but I know it was very heavy. Our three field officers were wounded and taken from the field. Lieut. Col. Stevens has since died. His body, I learn, has been sent home. Col. Fairchild has lost an arm, but is doing well. He was out the street a few days ago.

During this action our corps general, Major General J. F. Reynolds, was killed, being shot in the neck, the ball severing an artery. The brigade here captured two rebel regiments, but I am unable to learn what states they were from. The 6th Wisconsin and rear guard captured a regiment, colors and commander. The rebel Gen. Archer also fell into their hands. Only the 1st and a part of the 11th corps were engaged, and true to its former tradition the latter failed to stand up to a hearty support of the troops of the 1st corps. The day for us was a fearful one, but upon whom the responsibility rests of pushing a single corps into the face of an enemy whose strength and position were unknown, yet remains to be known. Some of the Baltimore and Philadelphia papers received, not only insinuate but directly charge that the 1st corps gave way first, and compelled them, Carl Schurz' division, to fall back, and that 5,000 good men in the place of the 1st corps would have saved the day; and this is spoken against men who fought for a long time against great odds, after their right flank had been exposed to the attacks of the enemy, who hurled whole brigades upon the thus exposed portion of the line composed of only ten brigades of the 1st division. Gen. Cutler and General Meredith's brigades first formed in line of battle to the left of the town, and gallantly engaged the enemy, as your readers already know, with a gallantry, too, which was highly praised by Gen. Hill, who witnessed it; and a rebel colonel expressed great surprise to Col. Morrow, of the 24th, that any stand should have been made at all, for our position was such it seemed impossible for a single man to escape. So sure, he said, were they of our capture, that they withheld their fire until they received a volley from our men. While the division was forming this line and advancing to the attack, the 11th corps was ordered to proceed through the town and take up their position on the right of our division. Instead of doing this, only one division of that corps advanced, and this did not once get into line of battle; only the head of the column engaged the enemy a short time, leaving the line of battle incomplete, and then falling back without cause or reason. This accounts for the confused and hurried retreat of our men through the city, and their loss while in the street. The troops of the 11th corps left their position before any order to retire was given, our line was unsupported, and the enemy taking advantage of our unprotected right wing, poured in a destructive fire upon our flanks. Battery "B" lost 25 men. The first and second brigades were cut up and scattered, only a small portion saving themselves from capture by a precipitate retreat through the town. Thus much for the 11th corps.

Had they remained silent and not outraged the honor of the gallant dead who were slaughtered by their neglect, we should not, perhaps, have taken even this notice of them, and their conduct would be remembered only by the surviving comrades of the gallant dead. They basely fled, and their conduct was made the means of inspiring a brigade of rebels to charge our right wing on Friday, their officers believing that only the 11th corps held the breastwork, when they rushed forward with a yell to put them to flight, and only discovered their mistake in the bold front and well directed fire of the 12th corps, which scattered them like chaff. This much is only scanty justice to the men of the 1st division, 1st corps, whose honor and fame are in their own hands, and is but a feeble expression of the honest indignation shared by every member of that division, from the humblest private in the ranks to the patriotic and self-devoted commander. We were in hopes to see some excuse offered for their shamefully giving away on the right, leaving us to be out flanked and butchered; but no, no apology is offered. I hope this matter may receive the attention it deserves from the soldiers' friends.

Second Lieut. W. S. Winngar, Co. H, 2d Wisconsin, was among the first to fall. In him the company has lost a valuable friend. His residence, I think, was Shopiere, Rock county.

The wounded in this hospital are doing well, under the care of Surgeon Beach, of the 24th Michigan infantry. Hundreds of wounded are being sent away to Baltimore daily, their wounds being slight. The weather here is cloudy and damp. As yet I have not seen any of the Wisconsin soldiers' aid societies.

Yours, E. S. WILLIAMS.

From the Richmond Enquirer, July 15.

CONSCRIPTION IN THE SOUTH.

All White Men Called Out between the Ages of 18 and 45.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

WHEREAS, It is provided by an act of congress, entitled, "An act to further provide for the public defense," approved on the 16th day of April, 1862, and by another act of congress, approved on the 27th of September, 1862, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act to provide farther for the public defence," approved 16th of April, 1862, that the President be authorized to call out and place in the military service of the confederate states, for three years, unless the war shall have been sooner ended, all white men who are residents of the confederate states between the ages of 18 and 45 years, at the time the call may be made, and who are not at such time legally exempted from military service, or such part thereof as in his judgment may be necessary to the public defence.

And whereas, in my judgment the necessities of the public defence require that every man capable of bearing arms, between the ages aforesaid, should now be called out to do his duty in the defence of his country, and in driving back the invaders now within the limits of the confederacy.

Now, therefore, I, Jefferson Davis, President of the confederate states of America, do, by virtue of the powers vested in me as aforesaid, call out and place in the military service of the confederate states all white men residents of said states between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, not legally exempted from military service; and I do hereby order and direct that all persons subject to this call and not now in the military service, do, upon being enrolled, forthwith repair to the conscript camps established in the respective states of which they may be residents, under pain of being held and punished as deserters in the event of their failure to obey the call as provided in said laws.

And I farther order and direct that the enrolling officers of the several states proceed at once to enroll all persons embraced within the terms of this proclamation, and not heretofore enrolled.

And I do farther order that it shall be lawful for any person embraced within this call to volunteer for service before enrollment, and that persons so volunteering be allowed to select the arm of service and the company which they desire to join, provided such company be deficient in the full number of men allowed by law for its organization.

Given under my hand and the seal of the confederate states of America, at the city of Richmond, this fifteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, July 23.

Special to the Chicago Journal.—The steamer Emerald came up this morning with 768 prisoners from Vicksburg. Some of them were taken at the surrender, and have refused to be paroled. Others have been picked up at different places since the surrender. Nearly all of them will take the oath of allegiance, it permitted.

The banks of the river, from Natchez to Vicksburg, are lined with men trying to get across to escape the rebel conscripting officers.

The Crescent City brought up 400 sick and wounded, last night, from Vicksburg. Ten died on the way up. The prisoners and the sick have all gone to St. Louis.

Five thousand head of cattle were captured by Gen. Ransom's forces at Natchez. They had been driven from Texas for the use of Johnston's army, and had been taken across the river on rafts, and by swimming. Some of them were taken to Port Hudson and some to New Orleans. Between three and four thousand hogsheads of sugar were also captured. The steamers Louisville and Elmira were also captured up the Red river, and had arrived at Vicksburg on the 17th.

The Natchez Courier, of the 11th, compliments Grant's army for its bravery and perseverance. Natchez has been injured but little during the war, and is said to look finely.

CINCINNATI, July 23.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—In your last dispatch we left Morgan at or near Athens, Ohio. From there he moved to Eaglesport, and crossed the Muskingum river at that point. After crossing, he started for the interior of the state, but was met by some of our militia, who turned his course towards the Ohio river. He was again met by the militia, who turned his course towards Camberland, Guernsey county. At the last accounts received at the headquarters of General Burnside, he was within five miles of that place. Our cavalry were about two hours in his rear.

Seventy-one officers who were captured at Buffington Island were brought to this city this morning, and lodged in the city prison. Among them are Basil Duke, Col. Dick Morgan, Col. W. W. Ward, Colonel Smith and Lieut. Col. Hoffman. They will probably be sent to Johnson's Island.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

Herald's special.—The relative situation of the armies in Virginia, to-day, are nearly understood here. It is apparent that General Meade has the rebel army of Lee completely entrapped. Lee is evidently massing his forces to break his way through to Richmond, but will probably find it a more difficult undertaking than the one at Gettysburg. After all the delay there is now not much prospect of Lee being able to get his army back to Richmond, or even so far as the upper end of the Shenandoah Valley.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

Times' special.—General Hooker has gone west. The rumor on the street is that he is to relieve the present commander of the Department of Missouri, but thus far this is merely conjecture.

NEW YORK, July 24.

The Herald says that the United States steamer Circassian arrived at Fortress Monroe on the 21st inst., from Charleston the 19th. A general engagement was just commencing as she left. General Gilmore had erected masked batteries in the woods quite near Fort Wagner, and expressed no doubt but the attack by himself and Admiral Dahlgren would prove successful. As the early morning shadows disappeared the attack began and a perfect shower of shot and shell were poured into Fort Wagner. The Circassian's orders were imperative and she could not stay till the termination of the day's fighting.

NEW YORK, July 24.

The Times' Paris letter says: There is some strange rumors in circulation within a day or two which I give you only as rumors. Another change has been made, according to these reports, in the Mexican programme. Mexico is to be placed under French protection or to become a colony of France with a French Prince for governor. The confederates have renounced all idea of regaining the Mississippi river and trans-Mississippi country without foreign aid. Slidell's visits to the Emperor and foreign secretary are lately said to be connected with this new state of things on the Mississippi. They are concocting schemes for an alliance against the United States with a view of securing the one Mexico and the other the Mississippi valley. The fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, they say, will throw Jeff. Davis and Napoleon into each others arms, and will be the final blow which will precipitate an alliance that only hangs fire because there is still some hazard that may turn contrary to present expectation. It is this they say which makes Napoleon so lukewarm on the question of Poland. It is this which makes him continually say Mexico is a big affair of moment.

It is this which has so suddenly demanded such large reinforcements in Mexico, for the whole division of Vinoy has been ordered to prepare itself for departure in the month of September, and several vessels, the Ville de Lyon, the Jean Bart, and the Wagram, are about to sail with reinforcements to the artillery in Mexico. Government papers declared, after the fall of Puebla, that there were enough men now in Mexico to finish the campaign. It is also ascertained on all hands the emperor, finding he cannot induce England to join him in hostile measures against the United States, or rather perhaps not desirous that England should join him, and yet anxious to give himself the aid of an ally, is now treating with Spain on this subject, and that Spain shows a willingness to second the emperor's views. Rumor adds that Marshal O'Donnell, who is now here, is going north to Berlin, ostensibly for the purpose of consulting the famous oculist, Graiffe, for his eyes, is in fact in treaty with the emperor on the question of arranging the affairs of the Mexican gulf for their mutual benefit.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

Special to the Tribune.—The war department is pushing the organization of colored troops vigorously. The successes of our forces in the west have given a fresh impulse to enlistments among the blacks. By autumn it is estimated that 100,000 negroes will be in arms in the Valley of the Mississippi.

Intelligence has been received by commissioner Dole of the safe removal of the Sioux and Winnebago Indians from Minnesota, in persuance of the act of congress. They are now located on the Missouri river a few miles above Fort Randall; all the goods of the Winnebagoes has arrived. Everything is working well. No further trouble is anticipated.

The recent trip of Admiral Lee up the James river was not designed to attack Fort Darling or any other place. It was simply a reconoissance, the object of which being attained, Admiral Lee returned with his gunboats.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

CHAMBERSBURG, July 23.

Special to Philadelphia Inquirer.—The enemy, except cavalry scouts, abandoned Hedgesville yesterday. Part of Ewell's corps with 16 cannon fell back towards Martinsburg. It is reported that the enemy has a cavalry force at Hancock this morning. It is stated that water will be readmitted into the Chesepeake and Ohio canal this week. Lee left Winchester with his staff, yesterday morning, in the direction of Middleburg and Strasburg. His heaviest force is now in and around Winchester. He has been reinforced from lower Virginia and North Carolina by a reported force of 10,000 men under D. H. Hill.

NEW YORK, July 24.

Flour dull and heavy, 4,50a5,10 extra state; 5,63a5,75 R. H. O. Wheat unchanged, 1,05a1,17 Chicago spring; 1,10a1,20 Milwaukee club; 1,20a1,24 red western. Corn unchanged. Oats shade firmer, 80a77.

Stocks irregular but close firmer. Reading 1.08¾. Gold 1.26½.

BALTIMORE, July 23.

There was a disposition to resist the enrollment in the vicinity of Jarettsville, Hanford county, Md., to-day. The barn of the enrolling officer was burned, with 500 bushels of corn; also, the barn of James Perry, with all its contents, and one house. Six shots were fired into the windows of the residence of the enrolling officer.

CINCINNATI, July 24.

Shortly after Morgan crossed the Muskingum, yesterday, he was attacked by the militia under Col. Hall, with two pieces of artillery. Fifteen rebels were killed and several wounded. His progress was checked twice by Col. Hall, but finally he escaped via. Cumberland, Guernsey Co., which place he left last night at 7 o'clock.

This morning he crossed the Central Ohio railroad at Campbells, but so closely pushed by Gen. Shackleford he had not time to do damage, beyond the burning of the depot and tearing up some track. At 9 o'clock this morning he reached Washington, Guernsey county, where he did a good deal of damage, plundering, &c.—Shackleford is close behind him.

A courier arrived from the vicinity of Taylorsville at noon and reported that a squad of about 50 men got detached from Morgan's cavalry when he crossed Muskingam. Morgan is prowling around the country, burning houses and wheat stacks, and killing stock. A force of 300 mounted men have been sent after him.

RAILROAD OPEN TO EVANSVILLE.—The Madison and Beloit railroad will be open to Evansville next Monday, and passenger trains ran regularly there thereafter. We congratulate the citizens of that flourishing locality on so auspicious an event.

Vallandigham, in his address to the "People of Ohio," says he did, "not meet (in the south) one man, woman or child who is not resolved to perish rather than yield to the pressure of arms." This, remarks the Albany Journal, is easily accounted for on the ground that his associations in Dixie were only with secessionists. He is the last man southern Unionists would be likely to take into their confidence.

SUBSISTENCE FOR GRANT'S ARMY.—The Vicksburg correspondent of the New York Herald states that from the river to Jackson the country gives abundant promise for a large corn crop. The lands formerly used for the growing of the celebrated upland cotton have been devoted to grain, in order to furnish a supply for the rebel army. It will now feed the soldiers of the Union. Thus "one planteth and another gathereth."

EFFECTS OF DECEASED SOLDIERS.—The St. Louis Republican publishes a notice that the effects of certain deceased soldiers will be sold at auction on the 1st of August, if not claimed by their friends by that time. Among the names of such deceased soldiers are Carl Jepson, Co. I, 22d Wisconsin, and Chris. Daughbaugh, Co. K, 22d Wisconsin.

Address Lieut. A. J. Nowby, A. A. A. General, Benton Barracks, St. Louis.

LINES

In memory of Willie Patterson, Co. E., 22nd Regiment Wis. Vol., who, when taken sick, was conveyed from his regiment to Nashville, Tenn., where he died among entire strangers.

Away he died—no mother's form was near,
With gentle hand, to cool his burning brow,
To note each word, each look, with anxious fear,
As but a tender mother's heart knows how,

No comrade stood beside his dying bed,
To catch his last fond words for those at home;
Strangers robed him in garments of the dead,
And placed him in the dark cold ground alone.

No friends were there to take the tearful look,
Ere he was laid within his narrow bed;
So sad! so sad!—the heart can hardly brook
The thought, we could not see him e'en when dead!

In piteous tones, we pray thee, southern breeze,
That cometh to us laden with the rattle
Of the dread fight, and murmurs 'mid the trees
The names of sons and brothers slain in battle!—

Oh gently tell us of our loved one's death!—
What were his thoughts—we pray thee, let us know—
Of home? and called he with his latest breath
For mother dear, who loved her pet boy so?

And never, when the sun sinks into rest,
Can we sit down beside our Willie's grave,
And on the green turf lay our aching breast,
And weep that one should die, so young, so brave

Stranger, pass not that mound with careless tread,
Nor think 'tis but a simple private's name!
Such love was clustered round the gentle dead,
As never could be bought by wealth or fame.

Dear friends, we too have drank affliction's cup,—
Full well we know the anguish it imparts!
Oh tenderly we ask you to look up
To Him who'll soothe your aching breaking hearts.

We know, bereaved ones, how your hearts are press'd
And worn and burdened down with grief and care;
"Come unto me, and I will give you rest,
All ye that weary, heavy laden, are."

Accept this as a slight tribute, from one who most tenderly and sincerely sympathises with you in your bereavements and trials. M. L. S.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17th, 1863.
[CIRCULAR No. 47.]

I. Drafted men become soldiers in the service of the United States by the fact of their names having been drawn in the draft. The notification, served upon them by the Provost Marshal, is merely an announcement of the fact, and an order for them to report for duty, at a designated time and place.

II. The following opinion of the Hon. William Whiting, Solicitor of the War Department, is published for the information of all concerned:

"When a person has been drafted, in pursuance of the Enrolment act of March 3, 1863, notice of such draft must be served within ten days thereafter, by a written or printed notice, to be served on him personally, or by leaving a copy at his last place of residence, requiring him to appear at a designated rendezvous to report for duty. Any person failing to report for duty after notice LEFT AT HIS LAST PLACE OF RESIDENCE, or served on him personally, without furnishing a substitute or paying $300, is pronounced by law to be a deserter; he may be arrested and held for trial by court-martial, and SENTENCED TO DEATH.

"If a person after being drafted, and before receiving notice, deserts, the notice may still be served by leaving it at his last place of residence, and if he does not appear in accordance with the notice, or furnish the substitute or pay the $300, he will be in law a deserter and must be treated accordingly. There is no way or manner in which a person once 'enrolled,' can escape his public duties, and when drafted, whether present or absent, whether he changes his residence or absconds, the rights of the United States against him are secured, and it is only by performance of his duty to the country, that he will escape liability to be treated as a criminal.

[Signed] WILLIAM WHITING,
Solicitor of the War Department."

FOR 5-20 LOAN,

No. 114 South Third St., Philadelphia.

NATIONAL BANKING ASSOCIATIONS,

COMMUNITIES, and CAPITALISTS now contemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, under Secretary Chase's Bill, passed at the last session of Congress, are reminded that the 5-20 Loan, now for a limited period to be obtained at par, may after the first of August be withdrawn from the market.

The improved condition of Military affairs and the constant succession of Victories, together with the completion of the preparations for the issue of the Four Hundred Millions of Legal Tender Interest bearing notes, or Treasury Notes, renders the issuing of further long or permanent Loans at present, exceedingly doubtful.

The Loans of the Government,

maturing in 1881, are now selling at six per cent. premium. These would advance to 10 or 15 per cent premium, if the Secretary of the Treasury should discontinue the sales of the 5 20's; and the 5-20's themselves would soon command a handsome premium, should the demand for Government Loans, as the basis for banking or for investment, be at all active. It is possible that the Secretary of the Treasury may receive subscriptions to the 5-20 Loan for a longer period,—should there be any delay in the preparation of the notes for the supplying of the Treasury with funds, or should he in view of the manifest benefits to the country from the present popular mode of distributing the Loans of the nation among the people—or to encourage the formation of the New Banks—decide it to be wise and judicious to further extend the time of subscriptions to the 5-20's at par. His views and intentions on the subject of course, are unknown; therefore, the safest and wisest course is to subscribe at once, whilst a six per cent. bond, with the interest and principal payable in GOLD, can be had at par.

It will afford me pleasure to furnish full information in regard to the formation of the National Banks, and the necessary steps to be taken. Printed documents relative thereto will be furnished, at Washington, on application to Hon. Hugh McCullough, Comptroller of the Currency, or by the undersigned

Republican Union State Convention.

A Republican Union State Convention will be held at the Capitol in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M, on WEDNESDAY, THE 17th DAY of AUGUST NEXT, to nominate candidates for state officers to be chosen at the general election in November, and to take such other action as the public welfare shall seem to demand.

The chief public questions now before the country are those relating to the present war, and the proper method of dealing with the rebellion. There is no reason why those who concur substantially in opinion on these subjects should not now act together politically, whatever may have been their antecedents.—We therefore cordially invite all electors to unite in the election of delegates to the state convention aforesaid who approve of the following propositions:

That the Union be preserved in its integrity;

That the constitution and laws of the United States be enforced throughout the whole national domain;

That the rebellion be suppressed, not by compromises with or concessions to traitors, but by the sword, whose agency they have themselves invoked:

That the national administration should be heartily and generously supported, in its efforts to put down the rebellion.

Each senate and assembly district will be entitled to two delegates in said state convention.

The central committee recommend to the district committees that the conventions for the election of delegates be held as early as Saturday, the 8th day of August.

The National Loan.

The secretary of the treasury has ordered that the "five-twenty bonds" shall be still offered for sale. It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that the Rock county bank is an agent for their disposal in this vicinity. The opportunity for procuring these bonds may cease at any time, therefore those who wish to make the investment should do so at once. The advantages are very great—any amount, from $50 upwards can be obtained—there can be no state tax upon them, and no national tax, unless the income exceeds $600—the interest is payable in gold, and also the principal when due—unlike a loan upon mortgage their is no trouble about titles, nor any difficulty of selling them, if the owner wishes. In every way they are a most convenient and profitable investment, and at the same time their purchase aids the government in suppressing the rebellion. It is thus that interest and patriotism are combined. There are thousands of dollars in this country lying idle, which, if converted into five-twenty bonds, would yield a safe and remunerative revenue to their possessors. Let all who can invest this way, try it.

Resistance to the Draft.

The Janesville Monitor threatens that it will be dangerous to characterize the recent anti-draft mobs as democratic riots, because mobs will thereby be stimulated by the hope of support from that quarter. If there was no disloyalty in that party we do not see how it could have that effect. It seems to us that the Monitor is libeling its own party, if it is true, as it says, that there is no disposition in it to resist the draft. No misrepresentations can induce a truly loyal man or party to oppose the government in its efforts to obtain soldiers to defend the integrity of the Union. It is the foulest slander that could be cast upon the name of any man, or party, to say that if encouraged, if made to believe that he would be protected, he would take up arms against his own government, rather than give it that military aid which every obligation both moral and legal, imposes upon him as a good citizen. It seems to us that the Monitor is treading upon the dangerous ground of inducing such a state of things, when it announces that there are men in its own party who would be emboldened to do this if encouraged a little. Perhaps it right, however, and that the number is large enough to make it a "duty" to give its "friends" a solemn word of caution, that the democratic party will not back them up in such a course. It knows the material of which that party is composed better than we do, and it can therefore best justify itself in making such an announcement.

If the peril is so great from this cause that "it is impossible for us (the editors of the Monitor) to magnify the danger attending this effort," that is, the effort which it says the republican press is making to cause the belief that the democratic party stands ready to back a resistance of the draft, then its warning should be heeded. But there must be a great number of its political friends who are willing to resist, or the terms of its warning are rather strong. It is almost sufficient to prove what it so vehemently denies.

The Monitor is mistaken when it says that the republican press is endeavoring to cause the belief that the "democratic" party is backing men up in resisting the draft. The charge is that the copperheads are doing so. It is not the old Jacksonian democratic party which is engaged in this traitorous work, but a new party, led by Vallandigham and Fernando Wood, who have stolen the name of democracy, under which they are endeavoring to ruin their country. True democrats, such as Dickinson, Butler, Dix, Grant, Andrew Johnson, Rosecrans, McClernand, Logan, Tod, Brough, Brady, and hosts of others, are in favor of the draft, and of all other measures necessary for the suppression of the rebellion. They do not belong to the "peace party," while war is being waged against the old flag. There is a difference between a democrat and a copperhead, and the distinction is growing wider every day.

If the Monitor, and those who claim to be democratic leaders, are sincere in their avowed desire that there should be no resistance to the draft, they can now accomplish a good work in undoing the prejudice against the conscription law which they have fostered in the minds of the people. They alone have the ear of those who are at all disposed to resist. Let them go among them and tell them that this is war for the nation; that it is the duty of all men in time of war to sustain their country; that a conscription is the fairest method of obtaining men for the national defence; that the present law is as just as any law ever adopted for this purpose, and must be sustained, or the republic will be lost; and let them encourage a truly American and patriotic sentiment among all classes, instead of occupying the time and the attention of the people in endeavoring to mislead and stir up sedition. In this way they will be able to demonstrate that there is no disloyaly in the democratic party, and to make obsolete the name of copperhead. By doing this they can save the country from anarchy, and the Union from dissolution. Let them close their mouths against all talk about party issues and unite for the Union and its salvation and they will be met more than half way by the republicans. Let the democratic leaders make their party a war party by supporting the war against rebellion, just as the noble democrats whom we have named are doing, and if they desire it, that party shall have the whole credit. Would not this be a grand mission for them? Truly, nothing could be more glorious, and the opportunity is now open. A bleeding country invites and entreats them to enter upon this upward path to fame and power.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

The First and Eleventh Corps at the Battle of Gettysburg.

EXPRESS OFFICE HOSPITAL,
GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 17.

The rebel army is again in Virginia. The soil of Pennsylvania and Maryland did not suit their taste, as they have learned by their rashness in making so fool-hardy a move as the one of June and July. They have learned by experience that rebels are not men of the north. One more invasion like this last one would uterly ruin the army of Northern Virginia. They have lost since the 30th of June, 45,000 men by casualties of war, desertion, &c., and of this number I think I can safely say 15,000 are wounded and in our hands.

The morning of the first was sultry and warm, we had orders to march at day-break, but for some cause we did not move until sunrise. The first corps moved from near Green Mount on the road to Gettysburg, our first division in the lead. When within one mile of the town firing began on our left and front. The rebels were driving in Buford's cavalry which had moved forward on the Chambersburg road. Leaving the road passing through a wheat field and through a piece of timber, some 80 rods ahead were our cavalry and flying artillery, contesting the advance of the rebels, who were pushing forward to gain a high eminence in our front, commanding the road by which we were approaching. At this point an order came along the line for non-combatants to the rear. The contrabands understood it and made themselves scarce.

About that time the division moved on and entered a field a quarter of a mile to the left of Gettysburg seminary, the 1st brigade being in the advance, in the following order: 2d Wisconsin, 7th Wisconsin, 19th Indiana, 24th Michigan and 6th Wisconsin. The rear was brought up by Major Wright of the 24th Michigan with a guard of 100 men. At this point we were ordered to double-quick in line loading our guns and fixing bayonets as we went. As we came to the brow of the hill, some messengers came whistling along. Directly in our front and about 40 rods away was a regiment of rebel skirmishers. They were advancing so rapidly that it was necessary to make a charge to spoil the advantageous position they had gained. With a yell, the brigade went down through a piece of timber as if a nest of hornets had got loose. At this point I fell wounded, being struck below the knee by a Minnie ball, which had the tendency of stopping my fun for a brief space of time, as my limb has since been amputated. With the help of two rifles I got off the field to the seminary, where my wound was dressed, shortly after being taken to town. Since then I have not seen the brigade nor heard of the exact loss, but I know it was very heavy. Our three field officers were wounded and taken from the field. Lieut. Col. Stevens has since died. His body, I learn, has been sent home. Col. Fairchild has lost an arm, but is doing well. He was out the street a few days ago.

During this action our corps general, Major General J. F. Reynolds, was killed, being shot in the neck, the ball severing an artery. The brigade here captured two rebel regiments, but I am unable to learn what states they were from. The 6th Wisconsin and rear guard captured a regiment, colors and commander. The rebel Gen. Archer also fell into their hands. Only the 1st and a part of the 11th corps were engaged, and true to its former tradition the latter failed to stand up to a hearty support of the troops of the 1st corps. The day for us was a fearful one, but upon whom the responsibility rests of pushing a single corps into the face of an enemy whose strength and position were unknown, yet remains to be known. Some of the Baltimore and Philadelphia papers received, not only insinuate but directly charge that the 1st corps gave way first, and compelled them, Carl Schurz' division, to fall back; and that 5,000 good men in the place of the 1st corps would have saved the day; and this is spoken against men who fought for a long time against great odds, after their right flank had been exposed to the attacks of the enemy, who hurled whole brigades upon the thus exposed portion of the line composed of only ten brigades of the 1st division. Gen. Cutler and General Meredith's brigades first formed in line of battle to the left of the town, and gallantly engaged the enemy, as your readers already know, with a gallantry, too, which was highly praised by Gen. Hill, who witnessed it; and a rebel colonel expressed great surprise to Col. Morrow, of the 24th, that any stand should have been made at all, for our position was such it seemed impossible for a single man to escape. So sure, he said, were they of our capture, that they withheld their fire until they received a volley from our men. While the division was forming this line and advancing to the attack, the 11th corps was ordered to proceed through the town and take up their position on the right of our division. Instead of doing this, only one division of that corps advanced, and this did not once get into line of battle; only the head of the column engaged the enemy a short time, leaving the line of battle incomplete, and then falling back without cause or reason. This accounts for the confused and hurried retreat of our men through the city, and their loss while in the street. The troops of the 11th corps left their position before any order to retire was given, our line was unsupported, and the enemy taking advantage of our unprotected right wing, poured in a destructive fire upon our flanks. Battery "B" lost 25 men. The first and second brigades were cut up and scattered, only a small portion saving themselves from capture by a precipitate retreat through the town. Thus much for the 11th corps.

Had they remained silent and not outraged the honor of the gallant dead who were slaughtered by their neglect, we should not, perhaps, have taken even this notice of them, and their conduct would be remembered only by the surviving comrades of the gallant dead. They basely fled, and their conduct was made the means of inspiring a brigade of rebels to charge our right wing on Friday, their officers believing that only the 11th corps held the breastwork, when they rushed forward with a yell to put them to flight, and only discovered their mistake in the bold front and well directed fire of the 12th corps, which scattered them like chaff. This much is only scanty justice to the men of the 1st division, 1st corps, whose honor and fame are in their own hands, and is but a feeble expression of the honest indignation shared by every member of that division, from the humblest private in the ranks to the patriotic and self-devoted commander. We were in hopes to see some excuse offered for their shamefully giving away on the right, leaving us to be out-flanked and butchered; but no, no apology is offered. I hope this matter may receive the attention it deserves from the soldiers' friends.

Second Lieut. W. S. Winngar, Co. H, 2d Wisconsin, was among the first to fall. In him the company has lost a valuable friend. His residence, I think, was Shopiere, Rock county.

The wounded in this hospital are doing well, under the care of Surgeon Beach, of the 24th Michigan infantry. Hundreds of wounded are being sent away to Baltimore daily, their wounds being slight. The weather here is cloudy and damp. As yet I have not seen any of the Wisconsin soldiers' aid societies.

Yours, E. S. WILLIAMS.

CONSCRIPTION IN THE SOUTH.

All White Men Called Out between the Ages of 18 and 45.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

WHEREAS, It is provided by an act of congress, entitled, "An act to further provide for the public defense," approved on the 16th day of April, 1862, and by another act of congress, approved on the 27th of September, 1862, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act to provide farther for the public defence," approved 16th of April, 1862, that the President be authorized to call out and place in the military service of the confederate states, for three years, unless the war shall have been sooner ended, all white men who are residents of the confederate states between the ages of 18 and 45 years, at the time the call may be made, and who are not at such time legally exempted from military service, or such part thereof as in his judgment may be necessary to the public defence.

And whereas, in my judgment the necessities of the public defence require that every man capable of bearing arms, between the ages aforesaid, should now be called out to do his duty in the defence of his country, and in driving back the invaders now within the limits of the confederacy.

Now, therefore, I, Jefferson Davis, President of the confederate states of America, do, by virtue of the powers vested in me as aforesaid, call out and place in the military service of the confederate states all white men residents of said states between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, not legally exempted from military service; and I do hereby order and direct that all persons subject to this call and not now in the military service, do, upon being enrolled, forthwith repair to the conscript camps established in the respective states of which they may be residents, under pain of being held and punished as deserters in the event of their failure to obey the call as provided in said laws.

And I further order and direct that the enrolling officers of the several states proceed at once to enroll all persons embraced within the terms of this proclamation, and not heretofore enrolled.

And I do farther order that it shall be lawful for any person embraced within this call to volunteer for service before enrollment, and that persons so volunteering be allowed to select the arm of service and the company which they desire to join, provided such company be deficient in the full number of men allowed by law for its organization.

Given under my hand and the seal of the confederate states of America, at the city of Richmond, this fifteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, July 23.

Special to the Chicago Journal.—The steamer Emerald came up this morning with 768 prisoners from Vicksburg. Some of them were taken at the surrender, and have refused to be paroled. Others have been picked up at different places since the surrender. Nearly all of them will take the oath of allegiance, it permitted.

The banks of the river, from Natchez to Vicksburg, are lined with men trying to get across to escape the rebel conscripting officers.

The Crescent City brought up 400 sick and wounded, last night, from Vicksburg. Ten died on the way up. The prisoners and the sick have all gone to St. Louis.

Five thousand head of cattle were captured by Gen. Ransom's forces at Natchez. They had been driven from Texas for the use of Johnston's army, and had been taken across the river on rafts, and by swimming. Some of them were taken to Port Hudson and some to New Orleans. Between three and four thousand bogsheads of sugar were also captured. The steamers Louisville and Elmira were also captured up the Red river, and had arrived at Vicksburg on the 17th.

The Natchez Courier, of the 11th, compliments Grant's army for its bravery and perseverance. Natchez has been injured but little during the war, and is said to look finely.

CINCINNATI, July 23.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—In your last dispatch we left Morgan at or near Athens, Ohio. From there he moved to Eaglesport, and crossed the Muskingum river at that point. After crossing, he started for the interior of the state, but was met by some of our militia, who turned his course towards the Ohio river. He was again met by the militia, who turned his course towards Cumberland, Guernsey county. At the last accounts received at the headquarters of General Burnside, he was within five miles of that place. Our cavalry were about two hours in his rear.

Seventy-one officers who were captured at Buffington Island were brought to this city this morning, and lodged in the city prison. Among them are Basil Duke, Col. Dick Morgan, Col. W. W. Ward, Colonel Smith and Lieut. Col. Hoffman. They will probably be sent to Johnson's Island.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

Herald's special.—The relative situation of the armies in Virginia, to-day, are nearly understood here. It is apparent that General Meade has the rebel army of Lee completely entrapped. Lee is evidently massing his forces to break his way through to Richmond, but will probably find it a more difficult undertaking than the one at Gettysburg. After all the delay there is now not much prospect of Lee being able to get his army back to Richmond, or even so far as the upper end of the Shenandoah Valley.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

Times' special.—General Hooker has gone west. The rumor on the street is that he is to relieve the present commander of the Department of Missouri, but thus far this is merely conjecture.

NEW YORK, July 24.

The Herald says that the United States steamer Circassian arrived at Fortress Monroe on the 21st inst., from Charleston the 19th. A general engagement was just commencing as she left. General Gilmore had erected masked batteries in the woods quite near Fort Wagner, and expressed no doubt but the attack by himself and Admiral Dahlgren would prove successful. As the early morning shadows disappeared the attack began and a perfect shower of shot and shell were poured into Fort Wagner. The Circassian's orders were imperative and she could not stay till the termination of the day's fighting.

NEW YORK, July 24.

The Times' Paris letter says: There is some strange rumors in circulation within a day or two which I give you only as rumors. Another change has been made, according to these reports, in the Mexican programme. Mexico is to be placed under French protection or to become a colony of France with a French Prince for governor, The confederates have renounced all idea of regaining the Mississippi river and trans-Mississippi country without foreign aid. Slidell's visits to the Emperor and foreign secretary are lately said to be connected with this new state of things on the Mississippi. They are concocting schemes for an alliance against the United States with a view of securing the one Mexico and the other the Mississippi valley. The fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, they say, will throw Jeff. Davis and Napoleon into each others arms, and will be the final blow which will precipitate an alliance that only hangs fire because there is still some hazard that may turn contrary to present expectation. It is this they say which makes Napoleon so lukewarm on the question of Poland. It is this which makes him continually say Mexico is a big affair of moment.

It is this which has so suddenly demanded such large reinforcements in Mexico, for the whole division of Vinoy has been ordered to prepare itself for departure in the month of September, and several vessels, the Ville de Lyon, the Jean Bart, and the Wagram, are about to sail with reinforcements to the artillery in Mexico. Government papers declared, after the fall of Puebla, that there were enough men now in Mexico to finish the campaign. It is also ascertained on all hands the emperor, finding he cannot induce England to join him in hostile measures against the United States, or rather perhaps not desirous that England should join him, and yet anxious to give himself the aid of an ally, is now treating with Spain on this subject, and that Spain shows a willingness to second the emperor's views. Rumor adds that Marshal O'Donnell, who is now here, is going north to Berlin, ostensibly for the purpose of consulting the famous oculist, Graiffe, for his eyes, is in fact in treaty with the emperor on the question of arranging the affairs of the Mexican gulf for their mutual benefit.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

Special to the Tribune.—The war department is pushing the organization of colored troops vigorously. The successes of our forces in the west have given a fresh impulse to enlisments among the blacks. By autumn it is estimated that 100,000 negroes will be in arms in the Valley of the Mississippi.

Intelligence has been received by commissioner Dole of the safe removal of the Sioux and Winnebago Indians from Minnesota, in persuance of the act of congress. They are now located on the Missouri river a few miles above Fort Randall; all the goods of the Winnebagoes has arrived. Everything is working well. No further trouble is anticipated.

The recent trip of Admiral Lee up the James river was not designed to attack Fort Darling or any other place. It was simply a reconoissance, the object of which being attained, Admiral Lee returned with his gunboats.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

CHAMBERSBURG, July 23.

Special to Philadelphia Inquirer.—The enemy, except cavalry scouts, abandoned Hedgesville yesterday. Part of Ewell's corps with 16 cannon fell back towards Martinsburg. It is reported that the enemy has a cavalry force at Hancock this morning. It is stated that water will be readmitted into the Chesepeake and Ohio canal this week. Lee left Winchester with his staff, yesterday morning, in the direction of Middleburg and Strasburg. His heaviest force is now in and around Winchester. He has been reinforced from lower Virginia and North Carolina by a reported force of 10,000 men under D. H. Hill.

NEW YORK, July 24.

Flour dull and heavy, 4,59a5,10 extra state; 5,63a5,75 R. H. O. Wheat unchanged, 1,05a1,17 Chicago spring; 1,10a1,20 Milwaukee club; 1,20a1,24 red western. Corn unchanged. Oats shade firmer, 80a77.

Stocks irregular but close firmer. Reading 1.08¾. Gold 1.26½.

BALTIMORE, July 23.

There was a disposition to resist the enrollment in the vicinity of Jarettsville, Hanford county, Md., to-day. The barn of the enrolling officer was burned, with 500 bushels of corn; also, the barn of James Perry, with all its contents, and one house. Six shots were fired into the windows of the residence of the enrolling officer.

CINCINNATI, July 24.

Shortly after Morgan crossed the Muskingum, yesterday, he was attacked by the militia under Col. Hall, with two pieces of artillery. Fifteen rebels were killed and several wounded. His progress was checked twice by Col. Hall, but finally he escaped via. Cumberland, Guernsey Co., which place he left last night at 7 o'clock.

This morning he crossed the Central Ohio railroad at Campbells, but so closely pushed by Gen. Shacklefordd he had not time to do damage, beyond the burning of the depot and tearing up some track. At 9 o'clock this morning he reached Washington, Guernsey county, where he did a good deal of damage, plundering, &c.—Shackleford is close behind him.

A courier arrived from the vicinity of Taylorsville at noon and reported that a squad of about 50 men got detached from Morgan's cavalry when he crossed Muskingam. Morgan is prowling around the country, burning houses and wheat stacks, and killing stock. A force of 300 mounted men have been sent after him.

RAILROAD OPEN TO EVANSVILLE.—The Madison and Beloit railroad will be open to Evansville next Monday, and passenger trains ran regularly there thereafter. We congratulate the citizens of that flourishing locality on so auspicious an event.

Vallandigham, in his address to the "People of Ohio," says he did, "not meet (in the south) one man; woman or child who is not resolved to perish rather than yield to the pressure of arms." This, remarks the Albany Journal, is easily accounted for on the ground that his associations in Dixie were only with secessionists. He is the last man southern Unionists would be likely to take into their confidence.

SUBSISTENCE FOR GRANT'S ARMY.—The Vicksburg correspondent of the New York Herald states that from the river to Jackson the country gives abundant promise for a large corn crop. The lands formerly used for the growing of the celebrated upland cotton have been devoted to grain, in order to furnish a supply for the rebel army. It will now feed the soldiers of the Union. Thus "one planteth and another gathereth."

EFFECTS OF DECEASED SOLDIERS.—The St. Louis Republican publishes a notice that the effects of certain deceased soldiers will be sold at auction on the 1st of August, if not claimed by their friends by that time. Among the names of such deceased soldiers are Carl Jenson, Co. I, 22d Wisconsin, and Chris. Daughbaugh, Co. K, 22d Wisconsin.

LINES

In memory of Willie Patterson, Co. E., 22nd Regiment Wis. Vol., who, when taken sick, was conveyed from his regiment to Nashville, Tenn., where he died among entire strangers.

Away he died—no mother's form was near,
With gentle hand, to cool his burning brow,
To note each word, each look, with anxious fear,
As but a tender mother's heart knows how.

No comrade stood beside his dying bed,
To catch his last fond words for those at home;
Strangers robed him in garments of the dead,
And placed him in the dark cold ground alone.

No friends were there to take the tearful look,
Ere he was laid within his narrow bed;
So sad! so sad!—the heart can hardly brook
The thought, we could not see him e'en when dead!

In piteous tones, we pray thee, southern breeze,
That cometh to us laden with the rattle
Of the dread fight, and murmurs 'mid the trees
The names of sons and brothers slain in battle!—

Oh gently tell us of our loved one's death!—
What were his thoughts—we pray thee, let us know—
Of home? and called he with his latest breath
For mother dear, who loved her pet boy so?

And never, when the sun sinks into rest,
Can we sit down beside our Willie's grave,
And on the green turf lay our aching breast,
And weep that one should die, so young, so brave

Stranger, pass not that mound with careless tread,
Nor think 'tis but a simple private's name!
Such love was clustered round the gentle dead,
As never could be bought by wealth or fame.

Dear friends, we too have drank affliction's cup,—
Full well we know the anguish it imparts!
Oh tenderly we ask you to look up
To Him who'll soothe your aching breaking hearts.

We know, bereaved ones, how your hearts are press'd
And worn and bardened down with grief and care;
"Come unto me, and I will give you rest,
All ye that weary, heavy laden, are."

Accept this as a slight tribute, from one who most tenderly and sincerely sympathises with you in your bereavements and trials. M. L. S.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17th, 1863.
[CIRCULAR No. 47]

I. Drafted men become soldiers in the service of the United States by the fact of their names having been drawn in the draft. The notification, served upon them by the Provost Marshal, is merely an announcement of the fact, and an order for them to report for duty, at a designated time and place.

II. The following opinion of the Hon. William Whiting, Solicitor of the War Department, is published for the information of all concerned:

"When a person has been drafted, in pursuance of the Enrolment act of March 3, 1863, notice of such draft must be served within ten days thereafter, by a written or printed notice, to be served on him personally, or by leaving a copy at his last place of residence, requiring him to appear at a designated rendezvous to report for duty. Any person failing to report for duty after notice LEFT AT HIS LAST PLACE OF RESIDENCE, or served on him personally, without furnishing a substitute or paying $300, is pronounced by law to be a deserter; he may be arrested and held for trial by court-martial, and SENTENCED TO DEATH.

"If a person after being drafted, and before receiving notice, deserts, the notice may still be served by leaving it at his last place of residence, and if he does not appear in accordance with the notice, or furnish the substitute or pay the $300, he will be in law a deserter and must be treated accordingly. There is no way or manner in which a person once 'enrolled,' can escape his public duties, and when drafted, whether present or absent, whether he changes his residence or absconds, the rights of the United States against him are secured, and it is only by performance of his duty to the country, that he will escape liability to be treated as a criminal.

[Signed] WILLIAM WHITING.
Solicitor of the War Department."

FOR 5-20 LOAN,

No. 114 South Third St., Philadelphia.

NATIONAL BANKING ASSOCIATIONS,

COMMUNITIES, and CAPITALISTS now contemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, under Secretary Chase's Bill, passed at the last session of Congress, are reminded that the 5-20 Loan, now for a limited period to be obtained at par, may after the first of August be withdrawn from the market.

The improved condition of Military affairs and the constant succession of Victories, together with the completion of the preparations for the issue of the Four Hundred Millions of Legal Tender interest bearing notes, or Treasury Notes, renders the issuing of further long or permanent Loans at present, exceedingly doubtful.

The Loans of the Government,

maturing in 1881, are now selling at six per cent. premium. These would advance to 10 or 15 per cent. premium, if the Secretary of the Treasury should discontinue the sales of the 5-20's; and the 5-20's themselves would soon command a handsome premium, should the demand for Government Loans, as the basis for banking or for investment, be at all active. It is possible that the Secretary of the Treasury may receive subscriptions to the 5-20 Loan for a longer period,—should there be any delay in the preparation of the notes for the supplying of the Treasury with funds, or should he in view of the manifest benefits to the country from the present popular mode of distributing the Loans of the nation among the people—or to encourage the formation of the New Banks—decide it to be wise and judicious to further extend the time of subscriptions to the 5-20's at par. His views and intentions on the subject, of course, are unknown; therefore, the safest and wisest course is to subscribe at once, whilst a six per cent. bond, with the interest and principal payable in GOLD, can be had at par.

It will afford me pleasure to furnish full information in regard to the formation of the National Banks, and the necessary steps to be taken. Printed documents relative thereto will be furnished, at Washington, on application to Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Comptroller of the Currency, or by the undersigned.

Death of Henry H. Whittier.

There is sad news again from our army. Henry H. Whittier died in the floating hospital Nashville, at Vicksburg, the evening of July 13th. A letter from the steward announcing this intelligence states that he lived but a few hours after his admission, having been sick but a short time previously, the disease being congestive chill. When received into the hospital he was unconscious, and died without the presence of friends or acquaintances.

Henry was well known in this city. For several years he was employed in the Gazette office. By his intelligence and fidelity he commended himself to the approbation of his employers; by his general good conduct and character he secured the respect of all who knew him, and by his kindness and attention to a dependent mother he held a place in the family circle which will never again be filled. He enlisted in the service of his country from motives of the purest patriotism, and was very active in the organization of Capt. Britton's company, holding the rank of 5th sergeant, from which he was promoted to orderly sergeant, which rank he held at the time of his death. He was a favorite in the company, and faithful in the discharge of every duty.

Young in years, but tried and approved in character, his loss comes oppressively upon those with whom he was associated in all the various relations of life.

For the Daily Gazette.
Record of Affliction.

Many records of affliction have been made since the breaking out of this slaveholders' rebellion. The following, though probably not the saddest, is a painful one:

Wm. Patterson, jr., Co. E, 22d Regiment, Wisconsin volunteers, died at Nashville, March 6th, in the 20th year of his age.—Josiah Patterson, Co. H, 13th Regiment Wisconsin volunteers, died at Fort Donelson, June 28th, in the 26th year of his age. Ashbel Patterson, Co. A, 4th Regiment Wisconsin volunteers, killed probably, at the battle of Port Hudson, June 14th, in the 24th year of his age. Sons of Wm. Patterson, of Richmond, Walworth county, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. P. have indeed been sorely afflicted. Besides these three sons, they have given largely in money and its equivalent for the Union cause. And they have given not grudgingly but cheerfully. Still they are laboring, willing to make, if in their power, more sacrifices if necessary, so that this rebellion be subdued, and the procuring cause of it, slavery, be removed from the body politic root and branch. This is true patriotism. May God bless and comfort all who mourn. L.

DR. SWEET'S Infallible Liniment,

THE

GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY,

FOR RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, LUMBAGO, STIFF NECK AND JOINTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, CUTS AND WOUNDS, PILES, HEADACHE, AND ALL RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS

For all which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails The Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, RHEUMATIC DISORDERS of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fail.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure

QUINSEY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECT BITES AND STINGS

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over four hundred voluntary testimonials to the wonderful curative properties of this Liniment have been received within the last two years, and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life.

CAUTION.

To avoid imposition, observe the Signature and Likeness of Dr Stephen Sweet on every label, and also "Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment" blown in the glass of each bottle, without which none are genuine

R. B. TREAT, President.

A. A. JACKSON, Secretary.

Death of Henry H. Whittier.

There is sad news again from our army. Henry H. Whittier died in the floating hospital Nashville, at Vicksburg, the evening of July 13th. A letter from the steward announcing this intelligence states that he lived but a few hours after his admission, having been sick but a short time previously, the disease being congestive chill. When received into the hospital he was unconscious, and died without the presence of friends or acquaintances.

Henry was well known in this city. For several years he was employed in the Gazette office. By his intelligence and fidelity he commended himself to the approbation of his employers; by his general good conduct and character he secured the respect of all who knew him, and by his kindness and attention to a dependent mother he held a place in the family circle which will never again be filled. He enlisted in the service of his country from motives of the purest patriotism, and was very active in the organization of Capt. Britton's company, holding the rank of 5th sergeant, from which he was promoted to orderly sergeant, which rank he held at the time of his death. He was a favorite in the company, and faithful in the discharge of every duty.

Young in years, but tried and approved in character, his loss comes oppressively upon those with whom he was associated in all the various relations of life.

For the Daily Gazette.

Record of Affliction.

Many records of affliction have been made since the breaking out of this slaveholders' rebellion. The following, though probably not the saddest, is a painful one:

Wm. Patterson, jr., Co. E, 22d Regiment, Wisconsin volunteers, died at Nashville, March 6th, in the 20th year of his age.—Josiah Patterson, Co. H, 13th Regiment Wisconsin volunteers, died at Fort Donelson, June 28th, in the 26th year of his age. Ashbel Patterson, Co. A, 4th Regiment Wisconsin volunteers, killed probably, at the battle of Port Hudson, June 14th, in the 24th year of his age. Sons of Wm. Patterson, of Richmond, Walworth county, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. P. have indeed been sorely afflicted. Besides these three sons, they have given largely in money and its equivalent for the Union cause. And they have given not grudgingly but cheerfully. Still they are laboring, willing to make, if in their power, more sacrifices if necessary, so that this rebellion be subdued, and the procuring cause of it, slavery, be removed from the body politic root and branch. This is true patriotism. May God bless and comfort all who mourn. L.

P. P. Stewart's Cooking Stoves.

UPWARDS of the above number of this wonderful stove are now in use throughout the country. Eighteen years of increasing favor load the proprietor, P. P. Stewart, to hope at no distant day to have the true "Benefactor of the Household" in universal use. The improvements of 1859 make it the

Most Perfect Cook Stove

in the world. The only cook stove having a full double set of flues, inlaid with heat retaining substances which enable the user to bake a full batch in the fire chamber. The only perfect Air-Tight cook stove manufactured. The only cook stove in use that will save its cost in three years in fuel. No waste of heat; no waste of fuel; perfectly air-tight; will retain fire in the chamber for twelve hours without adding fuel.

After the Fire is Entirely Extinguished

Every Stove Warranted to Give Satisfaction.

Those who know the P. P. Stewart cook stove need no recommendation. For the benefit of those who do not, at an early date I hope to have the pleasure of exhibiting, at my store, its wonderful capacity in a series of experiments in baking, roasting, broiling, &c., &c., of which due notice will be given.

DR. SWEET'S

Infallible Liniment,

GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY,

FOR RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, LUMBAGO, STIFF NECK AND JOINTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, CUTS AND WOUNDS, PILES, HEADACHE AND ALL RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

For all which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. The Liniment is prepared from the receipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, RHEUMATIC Disorders of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fail.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSEY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over four hundred voluntary testimonials to the wonderful curative properties of this Liniment have been received within the last two years, and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life.

CAUTION,

To avoid imposition, observe the Signature and Likeness of Dr. Stephen Sweet on every label, and also "Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment" blown in the glass of each bottle, without which none are genuine.

GREAT REDUCTION

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 21 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE,

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully Illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are, certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.
